

2021 VIRTUAL SPRING BENEFIT
Be a Part of Something Special

A MESSAGE FROM OUR RABBI

Our Virtual Spring Benefit took place between Passover and Shavuot. In addition to Counting the Omer, reciting a blessing for each of 49 evenings between the two holidays, the other custom of this season is to study Pirkei Avot, Ethics of the Fathers.

One of the teachings in Ethics of the Fathers is known to us in a popular Hebrew song: “Lo Alecha HaMelacha Ligmor.” “You are not obliged to finish the task, but neither are you free to ignore or desist from the task.” (2:21)

In a synagogue with a historic tradition of strong lay leadership, we have many outstanding volunteers. Sometimes our volunteers have the opportunity to envision a new program or goal and see it through. At other times, our leaders plant seeds and ideas that will continue to flourish under the next generation of leaders.

We are fortunate to have honored five individuals and families that understand this message of The Ethics of the Fathers. We may not always be able to complete a task, but we have an obligation to initiate new ideas and programs. Our honorees represent the best example of fulfilling many tasks in the life of the synagogue: administrative, ritual, community service, and executive leadership.

Joe Bloomfield and Phil Stein received our Volunteer of the Year Award in recognition of their day-to-day service to our congregation in a variety of roles.

Jessica Suckerman represents a new generation of synagogue leadership that seeks to provide for the spiritual, educational, and cultural needs of our younger families.

Bruce Solomon was honored for serving as a President of TBEMC and devoting countless hours to fulfilling the diverse needs of our members.

And Linda Ershow-Levenberg and David Levenberg represent TBEMC’s commitment to community responsibility and tikkun olam, bringing our congregation and its members closer to the fulfillment of our tradition’s deep commands for justice, tzedakah, and community service.

Mazal Tov! Thanks to our honorees and our synagogue membership, we will end this challenging and difficult COVID-19 year with a very successful fundraising effort that will serve as an example of our resilience and sustainability.

My deepest thanks to our President Mark Kaplan, event co-chairs John Harris and Shari Kopl, our Communications Team lead by Andrew Feldman and Becca Reissman, our Administrator, Susan King, Devorah Wolf and Debbie Kaplan for designing the ad journal, Mindy Kipness for managing our finances and donations, and our Development Advisor and Consultant, Melissa Kerbel.

It is my hope that this event will be the beginning of a new era in our congregation bringing us to new levels of engagement and participation in our beloved synagogue.

Rabbi Paul David Kerbel

FROM OUR PRESIDENT

We are a unique community – a community of volunteers. We are fortunate to have Rabbi Kerbel as our spiritual leader and Susan King as our Temple administrator, but our army of volunteers is the driving force behind so much that we do.

It is hard to imagine singling out an individual (or a few individuals) when our volunteers respond as a unit.

When TBEMC celebrated its 99th anniversary, Allen Barkin and I co-chaired the celebration. We decided to celebrate “99 Years of Volunteers” to emphasize that all of us, as volunteers, deserve to be honored. It was then that I first realized how daunting a task it is to recognize only a few as honorees. The same is true today.

However, I cannot think of a better group of honorees for our 2021 Virtual Spring Benefit than the individuals we recently honored. They are not only dedicated to our community, but also represent our diversity – diversity of how our members serve, and diversity in TBEMC’s meaning to them. Whether it is working behind the scenes to maintain ritual observance, keeping our office administration running, starting a social program for young families and organizing fundraisers, taking on the responsibility of being our president, or giving service not just to TBEMC but to the greater Jewish community, our honorees have all demonstrated leadership and passion, and have helped us go from strength to strength. I would like to express my deepest thanks to our honorees, who represent the best of TBEMC.

The Benefit was also about sustaining our Temple community so that we can serve our membership. To that end, I am grateful for everyone’s generosity in making this event a success, and raising funds that are critical for us to be able to sustain ourselves. A special thanks goes to our Host Committee and to our Sponsors.

Last but not least, the Benefit was made possible by a small army of volunteers who worked tirelessly to ensure its success. Thank you to event co-chairs John Harris and Shari Kopla. Thank you to Becca Reissman, Andrew Feldman, Debbie Kaplan, Devorah Wolf, Mindy Kipness, Susan King, and Rabbi Kerbel. A very special thanks to Melissa Kerbel for her vast experience as a Development professional, working behind the scenes to keep all of us organized and on track.

L’Shalom,
Mark Kaplan, President

PAST PRESIDENT'S AWARD

BRUCE SOLOMON

Bruce Solomon is a Jersey boy, born and raised in Jersey City. He has worked as an all-night disc jockey, co-authored 7 books, and worked as the General Counsel of the New Jersey Institute of Technology. Moving to Cranford in 1986 with his bride, Rhondi, they joined TBEMC, sent their children to the TBEMC Nursery School, and became very active in Temple life. Bruce has been a volunteer extraordinaire at TBEMC, becoming Temple President in 2005. He is known for his wit and puns, coining the slogan “Warm Place, Cool Shul”. Through more than a quarter century of laughter and tears, triumphs and losses, Bruce and Rhondi appreciate more than ever that the members of the Temple are more than their friends, they are their family, and that TBEMC is far more than bricks and mortar, it is our community and their second home.

JESSICA SUCKERMAN

Jessica Suckerman lives in Cranford with her husband, Dan, children, Eli (9) and Ruby (4 1/2), and dogs, Sophy and Maisy. She led our successful Bagels and Babies program for two years, and she co-chaired Trivia Night 2020 — our top fundraiser of the year. Jessica is currently the chairperson of our membership committee, which has needed a complete reimagining in a primarily-remote environment over the past year. She has served and continues to serve on various other ad hoc committees at TBEMC.

VOLUNTEER OF THE YEAR

PHIL STEIN

Phil Stein has been a member of TBEMC for almost 40 years. He is TBEMC's "Ritual volunteer" extraordinaire, tending to our Torahs with loving care. He also ensures the Siddurim are ready for Shabbat and holidays. After 34 years of working for the IRS, Phil retired and decided to devote his time to TBEMC. "The people at TBEMC are warm, and they open up their hearts to you and make you feel like you're important. I get a lot of satisfaction from taking care of the Yahrzeit lights Friday morning as well. I like doing my thing for the temple."

JOE BLOOMFIELD

Joe Bloomfield, Volunteer of the Year, also known as “Mr. Goodbar” and “Temple bartender,” has been a TBEMC member and volunteer for almost 30 years. Joe enjoys coming to minyan and Shabbat morning services. He handles all commemorative plaques for the temple and takes great pride in knowing everyone personally. In his free time, Joe loves to play the guitar and harmonica. He is often heard playing his guitar or serenading the office with his harmonica. “I enjoy coming into the office and the people here. They are all characters. I like working with the Rabbi, Susan, and Phil. If it were not for Covid-19 and my arthritic knees, I’d be out playing golf!” Joe devoted his 34-year career to the railroad.
